

Photo and Video Consent Form for Schools

This form must be signed by the most senior person available at the school, ideally the Head teacher / Principal.

This form allows Send a Cow to gain consent to use images and video footage of the students in your class / school. Send a Cow will be the controller of the information provided on this form.

The information is only processed following your consent which can be withdrawn at any time by contacting Send a Cow on the details below or through your local Send a Cow extension worker.

Send a Cow may also use names provided to identify students with the photographs/video taken. These could be used in a wide range of print materials and online. Send a Cow regularly promotes the work of the charity with photographs and videos which can be viewed in media all over the world.

By signing this form you confirm that you have parental/guardian consent for all children to take part in external photography, video and case studies.

I confirm that the school named below has the parental/guardian consent of all children under the age of 18 to take part in the photos/videos for Send a Cow.
